CITY OF NEW RICHMOND

BUILDING & ZONING REQUIREMENTS

(Effective 11/29/12)

- 1. No construction or excavation allowed without permit issuance. Strict erosion control compliance including off-site tracking will be enforced.
- 2. Municipality NOT responsible for any site work or construction performed prior to plan review and building permit issuance.
- 3. Municipality NOT responsible for property line locations. Property lines must be displayed upon initial footing inspection. Municipality NOT responsible for proper lot/building site validation.
- 4. Check with local Building Inspection/Zoning Administrator office prior to any home improvements, landscaping, fencing, pools, excavation, antennas, outdoor wood stoves, paving, planting, misc. construction projects, etc. Always check private covenants before building.
- 5. Setbacks are NEVER measured from curbs. Always measure from property lines.
- 6. Owner/Builder responsible for zoning compliance. Inquire about specific zoning requirements.
- 7. All submitted building plans must match the intended construction.
- 8. All multi-family units require individual permitting.
- 9. 48-hour UDC inspection notification preferred. Allowances will be made on a case-by-case basis for inspections due to variable circumstances.
- 10. All permits issued REQUIRE final inspection notification upon completion of project
- 11. Occupancy NOT permitted until completion of all conditions on the final inspection report are satisfied.
- 12. Any reinspection shall be subject to a $75.00 fee for each incident.
- 13. City of New Richmond Building Inspection/Zoning Administrator office reserves citation authority for violations.
- 14. Owner/Builder must declare if property lines are present at common walls on building permit application for two unit buildings under separate ownership.
- 15. Owner/Builder responsible for obtaining utility easements for any services traversing adjacent/contiguous lots of parcels.
- 16. Owner/Builder shall be responsible for making sure all sub-contractor licensing and registrations through the State of Wisconsin are current.

l,	, understand and agree to these aforementioned conditions.
